

From: - Huntingdon Will Index. Page 30, Ref Vol 12 Page 213.

Elizabeth Copcote de Purton [Pirton] 1559

In the name of god Amen the XX [20] day of August in the yere [year] of our lord god a XXXXXLIX. I Elizabeth Copcote being sick of body soh [so] be it hole [whole] of mynde [mind] and memory make this my last Will and testament in manere [manner] and forme [form] following Ffirst [First] I bequethe [bequeath] my soull [soul] unto almyghtie [almighty] & to his blessed company of heven [heaven]
And my body to be buryede [buried] within the church of oure [our] lady of purton
[Pirton]

Ffirst [First] I bequethe [bequeath] unto my daughters children Xj [11] platters V [5]
dissers [dishes] V [5] pewters X [10] porengers to be devyded [divided] porcionallie
[by portion] amongs [amongst] them

Item I bequethe [bequeath] unto Mary Smyth a platter a pewtor [pewter] dissh [dish]
Vj [6] porangers

Item I bequethe [bequeath] to Margaret Copcot and Mary Copcot Vj [6] ?arnes [?]
?gimbells [?]

Item I bequethe [bequeath] to Elizabeth Smyth hoops of sew [?silver] and golte [gold]
And yf [if] it fortune the sed [said] Elizabeth Smyth to dye [die] then I Will that Margarite Copcote and Mary Copcot to have the sed [said] hoops

And I bequeth [bequeath] to my daughtere [daughter-in-law] Alice children V [5]
potts [potts] of brasse [brass]

Item I bequeith [bequeath] unto my sonne [son] Jaspere [son-in-law] a bylleyne [boiling] potte [pot]

Item I bequeith [bequeath] unto Mary Smyth a panne [pan] of brasse [brass]

Item I bequeith [bequeath] unto my sonne [son-in-law] Jaspere and to my daughter [daughter-in-law] Alice Vj [6] parye [pair] of flaxen sheats [sheets] to be divydid [divided] bytween [between] them

Item I bequeith [bequeath] unto Mary Smyth my payre [pair] of hempesive [?hemp ??expensive] sheets and fetherbede [feather bed] that I do lye [lie] on a bolstare [bolster] my pollowes [pillows] a piyle [pile] of white blanketts [blankets] a ?spermir [?] for a bed of ?danypa [?] and a covlet [coverlet] of ?dernepe [?]

Item I bequeith [bequeath] to Jasper Smyth my sonne [son-in-law] a greate [great] coffere [coffer] standing in the parlior [parlour]

The rest of my goods I do geve [give] them to my daughtere [daughter-in-law] Alice not bequethede [bequeathed] Item I Will that my sonne [son-in-law] Jaspere to have a cover that is at Thomas Copcotts And my sonne [son] Richard Copcotte to have a nother [another] that goith [goes] with hym [him]

And then to bestowe emonge [among] poore [poor] a oerfeyn [offering] for ?dyrige [dying] and masse [mass] according to ther [their] diresson [discretion] whom I make my executorys [executors]

Item I do geve [give] unto Raffe [Ralph] Copcot my oxe [ox] bullock that is at Thomas Copcott

Item I do geve [give] unto Elene Copcotte a calff [calf] that she hath in her custodye [custody]